Numerous protests were filed against any cancellation of service on the 'arres River, principally by those larmers along the river who are de-nendent entirely upon the river service for all transportation facilities. Commercial organizations and city of-ficials in Richmond, Norfolk and Petersturg also protested against the contemplated action, and the matter was not considered at the first special meeting of the stockholders.

The matter was also taken up in an informal way by Chairman Christopher B. Garnett, of the State Corporation Commission, and as a result the company is now petitioning for a general increase in its freight and passenger rates. No action looking to the dissolution of the company will be taken by the stockholders pending the decision of the Corporation Commission on the petition for in-creased rates.
